info@hajrawaheed.com

Hajra Waheed's oeuvre seeks to address personal, national and cultural identity formation in relation to political history, popular imagination and the broad impact of colonial power globally. Her mixed media practice consists of on-going bodies of work that continue to amass a growing personal archive, one in response to all those seemingly lost amongst rapid regional development and/or political strife. Over the last decade, Waheed has participated in exhibitions worldwide, most recently including 11th Gwangju Biennale, South Korea (2016); The Cyphers, BALTIC Centre for Contemporary Art, Gateshead, UK (2016); Still Against the Sky, KW Institute for Contemporary Art, Berlin (2015); L'avenir (Looking Forward), La Biennale de Montreal, Musee d'art contemporain de Montreal, QC (2014); Sea Change, Experimenter, Kolkata (2013); (In) the First Circle, Antoni Tapies Foundation, Barcelona and Lines of Control, Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art, NY (2012). Recipient of the prestigious 2014 Victor Martyn Lynch-Staunton Award for outstanding achievement as a Canadian Mid-Career Visual Artist, Waheed's works can be found in permanent collections including the Museum of Modern Art, NY, British Museum, London, Burger Collection, Zurich and Devi Art Foundation, New Delhi.

Hajra Waheed was born in Canada in 1980, she lives and works in Montréal.
